Private Practise MSK Experience

MM has been working as a full-time physiotherapist in Canada for the past eight years. She works in a private practice clinic where she assesses and treats primarily musculoskeletal injuries in patients of all ages and ability levels. She also coordinates return-to-work and sport programs and collaborates with a team of massage therapists, occupational therapists, and other physiotherapists. She has additional training with concussion, balance and dizziness management.

Hospital Experience

MM has completed multiple placements in a hospital setting during her training, but she has never worked independently in an inpatient setting.

Special Interests

MM has done additional training in concussion and persistent concussion syndrome management, which makes up approximately 10% of her current practice. She is also interested in manual therapy and is excited to learn about different treatment approaches between Canada and New Zealand.

Quotes from References

MM has excellent communication skills with clients and colleagues. She easily adapts to change and is very eager to learn. She has additional training with concussion, balance and dizziness and has had good outcomes with her clients. She is compassionate and hardworking.

MM has good time management and multi-tasking skills. She is able to manage her caseload well and has good patient outcomes.

MM would be an excellent addition to your team. Her warm personality and rapport with her clients and colleagues makes her stand out among the rest.

Who am I?

MM is from Nova Scotia, Canada, and is coming to New Zealand with her husband, who has an opportunity to work there for six months. They are looking forward to fitting in as much adventure as possible during their stay. MM is a physiotherapist with eight years of experience in the field. She has completed her Bachelor's in Kinesiology and Master's in Physiotherapy in Canada. She has additional training with concussion, balance and dizziness management. Outside of work, MM likes to stay physically active with yoga, Pilates, skiing, and hiking. She also loves to explore new restaurants and try as much local food as possible.
